ayecee: I'm good at figuring it out. My question is what is a reasonable time to wait, because that's the only alternative I'm just too impatient for a cable But thanks anyway exit Crap. That was supposed to be "exit" Anyway, thanks for the help. I'm off to work. Cheekio: somsip, it's a bug that i should report. Ubuntu bug 1197608 in ubuntu-mate-settings (Ubuntu) "Install of Ubuntu Mate fails on Dell Studio 1558" [Undecided,New] Thanks, claydoh somsip, can you use your workstation? alexfpms: I will when I'm on the PC I'm having issues with. So maybe. somsip, thank you somsip, does it depends on the type of the problem? somsip, if your workstation is a desktop but not a laptop? alexfpms: I don't have enough knowledge of the model to tell you if it's been tested or not. I would think you could but it's not my model. somsip, i think the problem is in the installer alexfpms: interesting. I'm not sure where you could start to gather information somsip, ok thank you anyway somsip, before submit a bug report it would be interesting to know if it's normal alexfpms: I don't know. I'm no expert on Dell Studio 1558. There may be something I have missed though somsip, if it
