Nov 13, 2013 Fingerprint Software version 6.2 by DigitalPersona, Inc.. Versions: 6..2. File name: DPUserConsole.exe. Digitalpersona Fingerprint Software 6.2 VERIFIED Download 24 A: Just in case someone comes here looking for similar or same tool. I have found this link on the web the other day which show that there is a "DigitalPersona" Google Chrome extension that you can use. It is mentioned on the digitalpersona website (to be used to access your account on the computer you are using) that it can also be used in Android and iOS devices. I have done a brief test and works like a charm. From the website: Features: Verify fingerprint, Touch ID and Passcode Automatically find and authorize apps With the fingerprint verify and Touch ID, you can prevent others from accessing your sensitive data by simply touching the fingerprint reader. With the passcode Lock feature, you can prevent others from accessing your account or device by entering your passcode at any time. Install the extension From About: Access your account using only your fingerprint Works on Android and iOS devices Automatically find and authorize apps Allow only the apps you want Verify fingerprint, Touch ID and Passcode With the fingerprint verify and Touch ID, you can prevent others from accessing your sensitive data by simply touching the fingerprint reader. With the passcode Lock feature, you can prevent others from accessing your account or device by entering your passcode at any time. Chrome store link: Apple App store link: A: Another way to do the same thing (and probably more secure and accurate) would be to use the biometric enrollment app that comes with Windows 10. You'll have to set up a personal account on the PC, and then get your fingerprint scanned, either with Windows Hello or with a third-party app like Wuru. After that, Windows will have a window to log in with a fingerprint, or you can set up another account with your own PIN. Then you
