A: I think that if the driver is your problem, I think you should try to download a new one. If this is an adapter (not the motherboard) problem, the Adapter has to be told which port its connected with, windows will tell you something like that in device manager, just double click on that adapter and go to properties. Hope it helps. with you, and received them. That they are accepted by the Heavenly Father is the teaching of the Prophet Joseph Smith. “I thank you in the name of Christ that you have been brought to the knowledge of the truth. I declare to you that this is the first knowledge of the truth that you have ever received through the power of the Holy Ghost. It is by the power of the Holy Ghost that you have the privilege of living in this dispensation of the fulness of times. “I would say in conclusion this; I hope you will be blessed in this work.” I want to say that when in the mid 90s I had a vision of a man in a chariot pulled by light-colored mules. In the vision I heard a voice saying, “Help the Lamanites.” The voice spoke with an eastern accent. The man I saw was black with a high cheek bone, a square jaw, and curly hair. He had a high forehead. I’ve never seen the face of this man. I never thought of the mans’s appearance until a few years ago. I’ve seen many visions. I have no reservations about the validity of these revelations received from the Holy Ghost. I have a different set of problems with the LDS teachings and regulations. I have a different view of Jesus Christ. In all these days and in all these phases of my life I have continued to “live in the principle of faith” and I have remained “an humble and contrite heart”. My three greatest struggles in life have been “pride”, “fears” and “prejudice”. These have been the three sins I found most difficult to overcome. Pride stands as the second greatest single obstacle to our progress. A humble and contrite heart are the keys to overcoming pride. This blessing of God, “that ye may believe in Christ and be called his” is not confined to one branch of the LDS faith. Anyone in any
