This is my code for downloading it: `url_type = "itp://www.comidar.com/itp/jb-idea/2018.1.6.crash/download.html"` `response = requests.get(url_type, headers=headers)`
`print("crash: {}".format(response.text))` But I got some error: `crash: 2018.1.6.crash - Error (2) {"responseStatus": "ERROR", "responseMessage": "You are already using Java 8 Update 75 (and earlier) on this host."}` I want to fix this problem, How can I fix it? A: The latest update of intellij cannot be downloaded by the regular https method and must be downloaded via the browser method. We tried your link and it works fine for us. A$AP Rocky, Ariana Grande, Ed Sheeran, and the list goes on. The first round of singles off Beyoncé's new album has been announced. Beyoncé & Jay-Z's new album, "Everything Is Love," is scheduled to be released on April 14, 2016. It is the follow-up to 2014's "Beyoncé," which featured the singles "Drunk in Love," "Partition," "Haunted," "Flawless," and "Bow Down." The album was a huge success for the superstar, and the songs have since topped the charts all over the world. Along with "Everything Is Love," the new album will also contain three new songs: "Grown Up," "On the Run," and "Halo." Along with "Partition" (which you can hear her and Kanye West perform) and "Halo," the album will also feature the song "Grown Up," which will be performed by Jay-Z and Beyoncé. "On the Run" will be performed by Jay-Z, with the aid of rapper Big Sean, in addition to the one-time collaborator of Jay-Z, Eminem. The album will also feature a song called "Halo," which Beyoncé recorded for the movie "Batman v Superman: Dawn of Justice" in 2016. "Grown Up," which Beyoncé has also performed in the past, will feature "the entire family," including JAY-Z, Blue Ivy, and "Junior
